TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Info-Tech Research Group announced today the top CIOs for its annual Leadership Awards. The award winners were determined through Business Vision, an IT stakeholder satisfaction survey that helps CIOs understand the needs of their key business stakeholders.

Introducing ITRG's 2016 CIO Award Winners

Business Vision approaches IT with a powerful methodology using unbiased data and in-depth analysis through a formalized feedback system. The program provides IT leaders with insights needed to manage key stakeholders and implement a successful IT strategy.

Using concrete evidence from Business Vision, Info-Tech's CIO Leadership Awards celebrate IT leaders who receive the highest satisfaction scores. The 2016 Awards include repeat winners who have leveraged insights from previous years and seen up to a 20% increase in IT satisfaction.
